1. The airfield was about 2 km northeast of Flock (Q 53/K 12), just east of the road and railroad line to Sierpc (Q 53/K 15). The road crosses the railroad line just south of the field. The field was formerly occupied by the German Air Force.
2. There were no installations at the field in 1948. There were no aircraft at the field during the entire period of observation.
3. In the summer of 1950, the field was still used as pasture land, but the soil was such that it could be used as an airfield at any time. *

* Comment. This is the first postwar report on the Flock airfield. The location is correct. The other statements are also believed to be possible.
